Congratulations! Among the Best-In-Region, 2010 CMUS Talk of the Town Award for Excellence in Customer Satisfaction, have been announced.

Why Celebration Media U.S. provides results of their research to you at no charge?

We believe that small and emerging businesses need valuable customer research and marketing tools to help them compete for new business and retain their current customer base. In the past, the only companies that could afford such research were large corporations. CMUS has changed all that. We are dedicated to helping provide marketing tools to help small business succeed. Everything we do is for that reason. These awards were created to provide marketing tools for emerging businesses that are excelling in serving their customers and getting their high marks.

What did I do to earn the award? You and your staff must have provided excellent customer care which resulted in high marks. Voting took place on several user review websites. Results were reserached and tabulated during the last quarter of 2009 and first quarter 2010.

What does the recognition mean to me and my business? To a business it means everything. It reflects your customer's opinion of your business and drives new business referrals. You can leverage this award to thank customers, staff and returning and new business development.

How do I promote the Recognition and Award? At no charge you may use the information posted on our website along with the search page provided to your company. We offer several opportunities to purchase promotional materials such as a plaque, press kit, jpg file for your website and company profile. Congratulations for making a difference in your community and providing the services, products, management, leadership and staff that has earned your award rating.
